

Opportunities Working in Education....2018

Resources for those seeking teacher certification:

www.teachcalifornia.org - California Department of Education site gives information on teacher preparation programs, alternative certification programs, programs for paraprofessionals & recruitment programs.

www.teacher.org/state/california - step by step information on how to become a teacher in California including education & testing requirements and alternative teacher certification www.ctcexams.nesinc.com – This site provides information about California educator credentialing examinations: CBEST, CPAE, CSET, CTEL, NES and RICA.

www.calstateteach.net - 1-877-CALSTATE - program through CSU that allows working teachers to earn their credential without attending traditional college classes www.teachforamerica.org – Learn about opportunities and how to apply www.fortuneschool.us – learn about this teacher preparation and internship program linked to charter schools.

www.encorps.org - recruits professionals transitioning from the corporate sector to become math and science teachers in California's schools

Sites for Job Search for educators at all levels and in different settings:

www.educationcrossing.com – Search education jobs by job title or city, region or zip code. The site includes jobs with public interest organizations, government offices and companies.

www.ed-join.org – Education Job Opportunity Network lists job postings by state or school district www.k12jobs.com - Search for teaching jobs or administrative school positions. Using the site requires a login.

www.teachers-teachers.com – national site links to local job banks and is a clearinghouse for information for teachers and prospective teachers – must register to use www.schoolspring.com - search by zip code – some early childhood education listings www.caisca.org – California Association of Independent Schools information and job listings www.kipp.org – a national network of open enrollment public charter schools with Bay Area job listings www.cde.ca.gov/re/sd/co/coes.asp - 58 County Offices of Education throughout the state often provide special and career education, programs for youths at risk of academic failure, and instruction in juvenile detention facilities as well as administrative support services to school districts within each jurisdiction www.mdae.mdusd.org - For those who wish to teach adults, Mt. Diablo Adult Education hires ESL instructors and those with expertise in arts, physical fitness, foreign languages, music, cooking and many other areas. Berkeley Adult School (www.berkeleyschools.net) Acalanes Adult Education, Hayward Adult School (www.has.edu) are other local examples.

HIGHER EDUCATION

www.norcalherc.org - The Northern California Higher Education Recruitment Consortium provides the largest higher education job board in Northern California.

www.chronicle.com –The Chronicle of Higher Education allows you to search jobs in 4 year colleges, community colleges, organizations outside academia and private for profit institutions.

www.academiccareers.com – Academic Careers Online is a global academic job site for teaching jobs, education & research jobs, and professional jobs in education and academia www.higheredjobs.com – administrative, executive and faculty positions www.ccregistry.org – This site provides service for individuals seeking employment as a faculty member or administrator at one of California’s community colleges.

POSSIBILITIES BEYOND THE TRADITIONAL CLASSROOM

www.craigslist.org - look under "education/teaching" for Bay Area employment opportunities www.jobs2careers.com – This general job search site offers various ways to search education jobs: education/training, education consultant, educator, education management, etc.

www.idealists.org and www.workforgood.org are sites for jobs in the nonprofit sector. – Search under “education” or “teaching and instruction” for positions in nonprofits that provide services such as employment and training, after school programs, outdoor education and recreation, nutrition, tutorial services, outreach to special needs youth, etc.

www.wested.org is a San Francisco nonprofit that brings learning opportunities, consulting and technical assistance to their clients in education and human services www.educatorsoverseas.com and www.teachaway.com – sites for international jobs

Job titles for corporate positions using education and training skills: Instructional Design, Learning and Development Coordinator, Communication Trainer, Director of Impact and Evaluation, Education Program Manager, Leadership Effectiveness Program Manager, Diversity Trainer, Director of Professional Growth and Development, Chief Learning Officer