

Jobs, Services, and Employers that Tend to Go Up in this COVID Economy

August 2021

Remote Assignments through Temporary Staffing Agencies and Contract Employment Opportunities

E-Commerce Work including content developer, supply chain associate, shopper & package handler

Web Development of Online Sales of Products and Services, UX Designers, Social Media Marketers

Online Entertainment (movies, video games and more) including Streaming Services

New Banking areas like Digital Payment & new currencies like Cryptocurrency using Blockchain

Tele-Medical Services including Mental & Behavioral Health

Developers, Manufacturers, Marketers and Sellers of COVID Safety Products

Businesses Involved in Innovative Manufacturing including Robotics and Drones

Specialists in Data Collection and Analysis of Customer Behavior & Industry Trends

Developers of work and video sharing software and apps

Educational Tutoring and Teachers who can teach online or hybrid classes

Artificial Intelligence Developers, Video Game Developers, E-Learning Developers

Real Estate Sales as workers move away from urban centers for remote work

Computer Software Coders, App & Digital Media Developers, User Support Specialists

Logistics and Driving Positions speeding the delivery of packages

Continuing Need for Health Professionals including Mental Health and Wellness Niches

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Trainers, Coordinators and Managers

Construction Services especially home remodeling and repair

Projects Involving Infrastructure Replacement

Biopharma Development and Manufacture of COVID tests and vaccine as well as new drugs

Cybersecurity Professionals such as Information Security Analysts

Small Business Loan Packagers, Loan & Mortgage Specialists and Financial Planners

Electric Vehicle & Battery Manufacturers as well as other products to combat climate change