

Great Second Act Careers – full or part time (your choice):

September 2021

Accountant-Financial Manager – Every business needs to keep financial records

Adult Education Teacher teaching high school equivalency subjects, ESL or your favorite skill

Alternative Health Practitioner to promote healing and wellness

Antiques or Vintage Items Dealer – for those who treasure the treasures of the past

Appraiser or Assessor of Real Estate can earn good pay with flexible hours

Artist or Musician – take your talent to the next level

Audio/Visual Technician needed by schools, churches, businesses, theatres, outdoor arenas and more

Behavior Technician to work with autistic children

Childcare or Nanny – become part of the village that develops the next generation

Client Services Representative – combine your customer service and business skills

Consulting Niche – consider who needs what you know best and would pay for it

Construction and Building Inspector – ideal for those with a construction background

Designer (Jewelry, Fashion, Kitchens, Interior Spaces, Landscaping, etc.) – your choice

Digital Marketing Administrator manages online communication

ESL (English as a Second Language) Teacher or Tutor – bridge language barriers

Event Planner – perfect for social times who like to organize

Financial Planner because this is a career that favors those who have wisdom from life experience

Fitness Trainer or Weight Loss Coach to help others maintain their weight and health

Franchise Business Owner – for those with capital and an enterprising spirit

Geriatric Consultant to help those making decisions about nursing homes, moving parents etc.

Green Jobs such as eco-landscaper for those with technical skills and/or a passion for the environment

Healthcare – see if there is a niche for you in this multi-million dollar industry

Home Maintenance Adviser to help homeowners make wise and cost-effective choices

Interpreter or Translator if you have fluency in another language

Lobbyist or Politician or Advocate for those wanting to impact social or economic change

Nonprofit Staff Member– work for an agency whose mission matches your values and concerns

“Maker” who creates, designs and builds artistic and/or utilitarian objects

Math or Science Teacher for those with STEM work backgrounds wanting to inspire youth

Online Course Instructor in the discipline of your choice

Online Researcher for insurance, legal and marketing agencies depending on your background

Property, Real Estate or Community Association Manager – for those with good problem solving skills

Recruiter in an industry where you are known and have contacts

Residential Real Estate Sales can be profitable but it takes time to build a reputation

Retail Salesperson- find a business that sells what you like to buy or people would buy from you

Screenwriter, Fiction Writer, Memoir Writer – become a storyteller

Social Media Specialist – build a client’s professional brand using your social media savvy

Special Education Teacher or Aide – in demand and needed career

Tax Preparer – typically seasonal work but a good choice for those who like numbers & computers

Technical Writer – for those with a good mix of technology, communication & written writing skills

Tour Guide – show off your city, museum, historical setting or lead groups far and wide

Pick your favorite (s) from the above list or write your choices below
